

QUESTIONS

Day 1: Review

1. What did you like about the commentary notes?
2. What challenged you most from the lecture?

Day 2: 1 Timothy 2:1-4 [\[Open NKIV\]](#) [\[Open NIV\]](#)

3. According to verses 1 & 2, for whom and what should we pray?
4. Read Romans 13:1 and give a reason why you should pray for those in authority over you.
5. ? Personal Question: According to verse 1, we are urged to make requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving for others. How might you organize (or re-organize) your prayer life to fulfill this admonition from the Lord?
6. ? Personal Question: From verse 4, what does God want for all mankind? How should you respond to verse 4?

Day 3: 1 Timothy 2:5-8 [\[Open NKIV\]](#) [\[Open NIV\]](#)

7. Why should verses 5 & 6 be of the utmost importance to a follower of Jesus Christ?
8. What does Paul disclose in verse 7 about why he was appointed as an apostle?
9. ? Thought Question: What does verse 8 ask of all men (mankind)? What do you think it means to lift up “holy” hands in prayer?

10. ? Personal Question: Is there a command, word of instruction or principle found in verses 5-8 that you can apply to your own life? What is it?

Day 4: 1 Timothy 2:9-11 [\[Open NKIV\]](#) [\[Open NIV\]](#)

11. Make a list of things mentioned that a woman should do or not do while they worship God.
12. ? Thought Question: How might the things you listed to answer question 11 also apply to the male gender? Or do you think verses 9-11 only apply to women?
13. ? Personal Question: Summarize the main principle being taught in verses 9-11 (keep it short) and explain how you should apply it to your life?

Day 5: 1 Timothy 2:12-15 [\[Open NKIV\]](#) [\[Open NIV\]](#)

14. Start today's lesson by reading the following Bible verses about women in Scripture that God ordained to prophesy His Word. Beside each verse write down something you learn about a woman's role in the Bible. (Note: Most Bible scholars are in agreement that prophets throughout Scripture are those gifted to proclaim, teach and expound the truth of God's Word to His people.)

Luke 2:36-38-

Acts 2:17-18-

Acts 18:24-26-(Note: Priscilla was the wife.)

Acts 21:8-9-

15. ? Thought Question: What is your overall conclusion about God using women to proclaim His Word to both men and women from these verses?
16. Now, using the verses already referenced as context for your answer, what do you think Paul is instructing in verses 9-15?

Day 6: Reread 1 Timothy 2 [\[Open NKJV\]](#) [\[Open NIV\]](#)

17. ? Personal Question: How was your prayer life challenged by 1 Timothy 2?

18. ? Personal Question: What will you apply from 1 Timothy 2 to improve the way you engage in fellowship in your local church?

19. ? Personal Question: What encouraged you from 1 Timothy 2 that can be applied to your personal worship of God?
