Acts 27
March 22, 2022

- I. Storms are a part of life.
- II. Storms refine & reveal character.
- III. Storms do not hide the presence of God nor hinder the purpose of God.
- IV. Storms provide opportunities to minister.
- V. Storms spotlight your faith.
- VI. Storms draw you closer to God.
- VII. Storms require that you find your anchor.

Impact Statements:

You know you're on the right track when what you want lines up with what God wants.

When the winds are against you it does not mean God is against you.

Losing your direction is usually closely followed by losing hope.

When God said it, Paul believed it. Is that you tonight?

Everyone Paul knew, knew whom he served.

Is there anything in your life requiring that you drop 4 anchors & pray all night?
